

My Deat Grand dau(torn)

We are all curiously (torn) the time when we will have you with us every time any of the children come home they want to know when you are coming i think it will be nice for you if your brother will come along for he will be company for you and also a help with the baby. Your aunt carrie expects to come home about the first of July

Farmers here are just beginning to cut hay. Do you see you are a little (torn)ry season and I (torn) think you have them there. Your Uncle John will be home over the 4th Mary Invill not rite much now for we can talk things over better than we can write I don't think you need be afraid to come so far (torn) home when you are coming among friends remember your mother took the same journey all along when she was your age and she had no trouble.

With love

From your loving grandmother

Mary Ewart
